The Hate U Give by Angie Thomas Book Club

The UCI Libraries and UCI Illuminations invite you to participate in exclusive book clubs before the UCI Illuminations author series presentations.

Angie Thomas, born and raised in Jackson, Mississippi, has become a New York Times best-seller with her book The Hate U Give. Her book explores issues of racism and police violence and how it affects an ordinary teenage girl living in two polar worlds of affluence and poverty. Attendees are requested to have read the book before the event and will join Professor Jonathan Alexander, Chancellors Fellow and Chair of Women's Studies at UCI, for discussion.

Space is limited, RSVP now! partners.lib.uci.edu/AngieThomasBC

Express Yo' Self! UCI Libraries Zinefest

The UCI Libraries in partnership with the Cross Cultural Center and UCI's LGBT Resource Center will be hosting the 3rd annual UCI Libraries Zinefest. During the event, visitors can express themselves and create their own mini-magazine with coaching from the ZebraPizza zinester duo, and contribute to community zines. We will have a specially curated exhibit available of the UCI Libraries ever growing collection of zines.

Paws b4 Finals

Are finals a bit ruff? The UCI Libraries has you covered. UCI Libraries will host a study break event for students with furry pet therapy volunteers from the Orange County chapter of Paws 4Healing. Trained therapy animals will provide hardworking students with an opportunity to reduce their stress during the last week of the quarter before finals. Library staff will also be available to provide information about resources and services to help students succeed. The event will take place on Gateway Plaza in front of Langson library.
