Shakespeare Day

In partnership with UCI Illuminations and the UCI Shakespeare Center, the Libraries will host students from local area high schools and UCI for a Shakespeare Day. The event will feature a private lecture for the high school students by Professor Julia Lupton in addition to activities at Langson Library (12:00-1:30pm). The activities at Langson Library are open to all UCI students and include a viewing of Shakespeare's First Folio and other Shakespeare related materials from the Libraries' Special Collections and Archives, acting exercises, quill making and more!

For more information please visit:
illuminations.uci.edu/events/2017_4_24_Shakespeare_Day.html

Spring Exhibit Opening

This year, the UCI Libraries are celebrating the 30th Anniversary of the Southeast Asian Archive with the opening of our spring exhibit, "The After-Lives of War: The Southeast Asian Archive over 30 years." The event will feature a keynote presentation by Cathy J. Schlund-Vials, Ph.D., Professor of English and Asian and Asian American Studies at the University of Connecticut and a performance by Cambodian-American musician praCh. Reception and exhibit viewing will follow at Langson Library and the OC&SEAA Center. Co-sponsored by UCI Illuminations and the Sawyer Seminar Documenting War.

For more information and to register for the event please visit:
connect.lib.uci.edu/after-lives
Park Min-gyu Book Talk
The UCI Libraries in partnership with the UCI Center for Critical Korean Studies, UCI Global Engagement and Literature Translation Institute in Korea present a book talk with author Park Min-gyu. Born in South Korea in 1968, Park Min-gyu debuted as a novelist in 2003. As his writing style was so new, it sent shockwaves through the Korean literary world. The event will feature a program and reception. The event also highlights the implementation of the new Korea Corner in Langson Library.

For more information and to RSVP, contact:
partners@uci.edu

Library Gateway Plaza

Paws b4 Finals
UCI Libraries will host a study break event for students with pet therapy volunteers from the Orange County chapter of Paws 4 Healing. Trained therapy animals will provide hardworking students with an opportunity to reduce their stress in the last week of the quarter before finals. Library staff will also be available to provide information about the resources and services that we offer to help students succeed. The event will take place on Gateway Plaza in front of Langson Library.

For more information contact:
Nicole Helregel, helregel@uci.edu

June 5 - 15
Langson Library
Ayala Science Library

Stress Relief Study Breaks
UCI Libraries offer quiet and supportive places for students to study throughout the year. But during finals, we also provide opportunities for students to take productive study breaks! The Libraries will offer post-it note therapy and fun activities such as Legos, coloring and a communal puzzle. Langson Library and the Gateway Study Center also are open 24 hours during 10th and finals weeks.

For more information contact:
Nicole Helregel, helregel@uci.edu
Walter Stahr Book Talk

Walter Stahr, award-winning author of the New York Times bestseller “Seward,” will discuss his latest book “Stanton: Lincoln’s War Secretary.” Of the crucial men close to President Lincoln, Secretary of War Edwin Stanton (1814–1869) was the most powerful and controversial. Stanton raised, armed and supervised the army of a million men who won the Civil War. The presentation will be followed by a reception, book sales and book signing by the author.

Seating is limited. For more information and to RSVP, contact:
partners@uci.edu

First Folio Fridays

Noontime seminars at the Langson Library begin with a short lecture and end in Special Collections with a viewing of UCI’s copy of Shakespeare’s First Folio and other Shakespeariana. Seminars are led by Julia Lupton (English) and UCI Libraries staff. For the August 25th event, we are happy to welcome back Andrea Mays, author of “The Millionaire and the Bard, the definitive biography of Henry Folger” and founder of the Folger Shakespeare Library. This event is co-sponsored by the Libraries, UCI School of Humanities and the New Swan Shakespeare Festival.

For more information and to RSVP, contact:
partners@uci.edu

Stay informed about all UCI Libraries’ News and Events at: news.lib.uci.edu

or contact:

Charla Batey
Communications & Events Officer
cbatey@uci.edu
949-824-4658

To support the UCI Libraries please visit: partners.lib.uci.edu

or contact:

Wendi Morner
Director of Development
wmorner@uci.edu
949-824-8904