

JANUARY

Tuesday
5:30 pm - 7 pm
OC&SEAA Center

Jan
23

Lucky by Alice Sebold Book Club

UCI Libraries and UCI Illuminations invite you to participate in exclusive book clubs before the UCI Illuminations author series presentations.

Born in Madison, Wisconsin, Sebold grew up in the suburbs of Philadelphia and attended Syracuse University as well as the University of Houston and UCI. She has contributed to numerous anthologies and edited The Best American Short Stories 2009. Her books, The Lovely Bones, Lucky, and The Almost Moon challenged the literary world with their dark subjects. Attendees are requested to have read the book before the event and will join Professor Michelle Latiolais, UCI School of Humanities, for discussion.

For more information on this book talk and to RSVP, please visit:

lib.uci.edu/seboldbc

Tuesday
5:30 pm - 7 pm
OC&SEAA Center

Jan
30

The Secret History of Wonder Woman by Jill Lepore Book Club

UCI Libraries and UCI Illuminations invite you to participate in exclusive book clubs before the UCI Illuminations author series presentations.

Jill Lepore is the David Woods Kemper '41 Professor of American History at Harvard University. She is also a staff writer at The New Yorker. She is currently writing a history of the United States. Attendees are requested to have read the book before the event and will join Professor Barry Siegel for discussion. Siegel is a Pulitzer Prize winning former national correspondent for the Los Angeles Times, author, professor and founding director for the Literary Journalism Program in the UCI School of Humanities.

For more information on this book talk and to RSVP, please visit:

lib.uci.edu/leporebc

FEBRUARY

Tuesday - Thursday
Langson Library

Feb

13-15

Love Data Week

UCI Libraries will celebrate Love Data Week with speakers and workshops related to research data management, sharing, preservation, reuse and library-based research data services.

- Daniella Lowenberg, Research Data Specialist & Product Manager at UC Curation Center (UC3) will deliver a talk titled "Getting Credit For and Publishing Your Data" on Tuesday, February 13 from 10:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.
- Workshops on Data Management and Open Data & Reproducibility will be led by the Libraries' Digital Scholarship Services (DSS) Department.

For more information please contact: Danielle Kane at dkane@uci.edu

Wednesday
4:30 pm - 6:30 pm
Ayala Science Library

Feb
21

Winter 2018 Exhibit Opening | Water in California: Issues, Impacts & Innovation

The Winter Exhibit opening will showcase the intersections of water as a commodity and natural resource, through examples of research and scholarship at UCI. The opening event will feature Professor David Feldman, School of Social Ecology and Director of the Water UCI Center and Professor Stanley Grant, Samueli School of Engineering. Dance students from the Claire Trevor School of the Arts will also perform original pieces inspired by water and art from Lakeside Middle School students will be on display. Water in California is co-curated by Julia Gelfand, Applied Sciences & Engineering Librarian, and Shannon Roback, Ph.D., Assistant Director of Water UCI Center.

For more information visit: lib.uci.edu/exhibits

Tuesday
5:30 pm - 7 pm
OC&SEAA Center

Feb
27

Stories of Your Life and Others by Ted Chiang Book Club

UCI Libraries and UCI Illuminations invite you to participate in exclusive book clubs before the UCI Illuminations author series presentations.

Ted Chiang was born in Port Jefferson, New York, and holds a degree in computer science. In 1989 he attended the Clarion Science Fiction and Fantasy Writer's Workshop. His fiction has won four Hugo, four Nebula, and four Locus awards, and he is the recipient of the John W. Campbell Award for Best New Writer and the Theodore Sturgeon Memorial Award. Stories of Your Life and Others has been translated into ten languages. Attendees are requested to have read the book before the event and will join Professor Christopher Fan, UCI School of Humanities, for discussion.

For more information on this book talk and to RSVP, please visit:

lib.uci.edu/Chiangbc

MARCH

Saturday
Aldrich Park

Mar
3

UCI Homecoming

UCI Libraries will join campus partners at the 2018 UCI Homecoming hosted by the UCI Alumni Association. Stop by our booth to learn about what's new at the Libraries, reminisce about your time in the Libraries and pick up some literary swag.

For more information on Homecoming, please visit: alumni.uci.edu/

February 5-9, March 13-23
Langson Library & Ayala Science Library

Feb
&
Mar

Stress Relief Study Breaks

UCI Libraries offer quiet and supportive places for students to study throughout the year. And during finals week, we also provide opportunities for students to take productive study breaks! The Libraries will offer late-night snacks, post-it note therapy and fun activities such as Legos, coloring and a communal puzzle. Langson Library and the Gateway Study Center also are open 24 hours on specific days around 10th and finals week.

For more information, please contact Carolyn Griner at cgriner@uci.edu.

Week of March 12
Library Gateway Plaza

Mar
12-16

Paws b4 Finals

UCI Libraries will host a study break event for students with pet therapy volunteers from the Orange County chapter of Paws 4 Healing. Trained therapy animals will provide hardworking students with an opportunity to reduce their stress in the last week of the quarter before finals. Library staff will also be available to provide information about the resources and services that we offer to help students succeed. The event will take place in Gateway Plaza in front of Langson Library.

For more information, please contact Carolyn Griner at cgriner@uci.edu.

APRIL

Tuesday
5:30 pm - 7 pm
OC&SEAA Center

Apr
10

Underground Railroad* by Colson Whitehead Book Club

The UCI Libraries and UCI Illuminations invite you to participate in exclusive book clubs before the UCI Illuminations author series presentations.

Colson Whitehead was born in 1969, and was raised in Manhattan. His books have received many accolades starting with his first book The Intuitionist. His most recent book, The Underground Railroad, published summer 2016, won the Pulitzer Prize, the National Book Award and the Carnegie Medal for Fiction. The Underground Railroad was a New York Times Bestseller. Attendees are requested to have read the book before the event and will join Professor Michael Szalay, UCI School of Humanities, for discussion.

For more information on this book talk and to RSVP, please visit: lib.uci.edu/Colsonbc

Wednesday

Apr
25

UCI Giving Day

Today an academic library is not just a building with books and librarians; it is an information powerhouse that fosters discovery and learning across the campus and within the community. Sure, UCI Libraries still provides print resources and subject librarians; in addition, the Libraries provides access to everything from three-dimensional printing and digital scholarship services to public programming and community archiving. We are truly a Gateway to Knowledge. Supporting UCI Libraries serves as an investment in the educational, research and professional development goals of the entire community from undergraduate students embarking on their higher education journey to long-standing community members seeking new forms of understanding and engagement.

For more information please visit: givingday.uci.edu

Stay informed about all
UCI Libraries' News and Events at: news.lib.uci.edu

or contact:

Charla Batey
Communications & Events Officer
cbatey@uci.edu
949-824-4658

To support the UCI Libraries please visit: partners.lib.uci.edu

or contact:

Wendi Morner
Director of Development
wmorner@uci.edu
949-824-8904

 @UCILibraries

 @UCILibraries

 @UCILIB

 @UCILibraries

 @UCIrvineLibraries