First Folio Fridays

First Folio Fridays at the Langson Library will begin with an English tea and short lecture and end in Special Collections with a reading of UCI’s copy of Shakespeare’s First Folio and other Shakespeareana. The seminar will be led by Professor Julie Lupton (English). This event is sponsored by the Libraries and presented in collaboration with the UCI School of Humanities and the New Swan Shakespeare Festival.

For more information and to RSVP visit:
news.lib.ucir.edu/first-folio-fridays-2018

First Folio Fridays with Special Guest Andrea Mays

Noontime seminars at the Langson Library beginning with an English tea hour before Andrea Mays’ presentation and end in Special Collections with a viewing of UCI’s copy of Shakespeare’s First Folio and other Shakespeareana. Andrea Mays is the author of The Millionaire and the Bard, the definitive biography of Henry Fagler, the founder of the Folger Shakespeare Library. Her book will be available for sale and she will be available to sign books during the tea. This event is sponsored by the Libraries and presented in collaboration with the UCI School of Humanities and the New Swan Shakespeare Festival.

For more information and to RSVP visit:
news.lib.ucir.edu/first-folio-fridays-2018

Book Talk with Andy Policano

Andy J. Policano, Ph.D., will be joining the UCI Libraries to discuss his book, From Ivory Tower to Glass House: Strategies for Academic Leaders During Turbulent Times, and Public No More: A New Path to Excellence for America’s Public Universities. Andy Policano is the Dean’s Leadership Circle Endowed Professor Emeritus of Economics/Public Policy at the Paul Merage School of Business and the Former Dean of the UCI Paul Merage School of Business.

The presentation will be followed by a Q&A session and book sales and signing by the author. Refreshments will be served and seating is limited.

RSVP at: news.lib.ucir.edu/policano